11755 Moorpark Street presents a rare opportunity to acquire a well-maintained fourplex located in the heart of Studio City - one of the most affluent and in-demand rental markets in Los Angeles County. Built in 1949, this character-rich property sits on a prominent corner lot and is beautifully landscaped, offering both curb appeal and long-term investment stability.

The unit mix includes two spacious 2-bedroom units and two charming 1-bedroom units, providing a highly desirable layout for tenants. The property also features two 2-car garages, offering valuable on-site parking and potential for future ADU conversion (buyer to verify), along with a dedicated laundry room, adding convenience and additional income potential.

Located just minutes from the vibrant energy of Ventura Boulevard, residents enjoy quick access to premier retail, grocery, and dining destinations such as Trader Joe's, Urban Outfitters, Barnes & Noble, and a variety of popular restaurants and entertainment venues. Commuters benefit from close proximity to the 101, 170, and 134 Freeways, while major employment centers like CBS Radford Studios are only moments away.

Surrounded by a wealth of top-rated private schools - including Harvard-Westlake, Notre Dame High School, Campbell Hall, and Oakwood School - as well as numerous parks and hiking trails, this property offers the ideal blend of urban convenience and outdoor lifestyle.

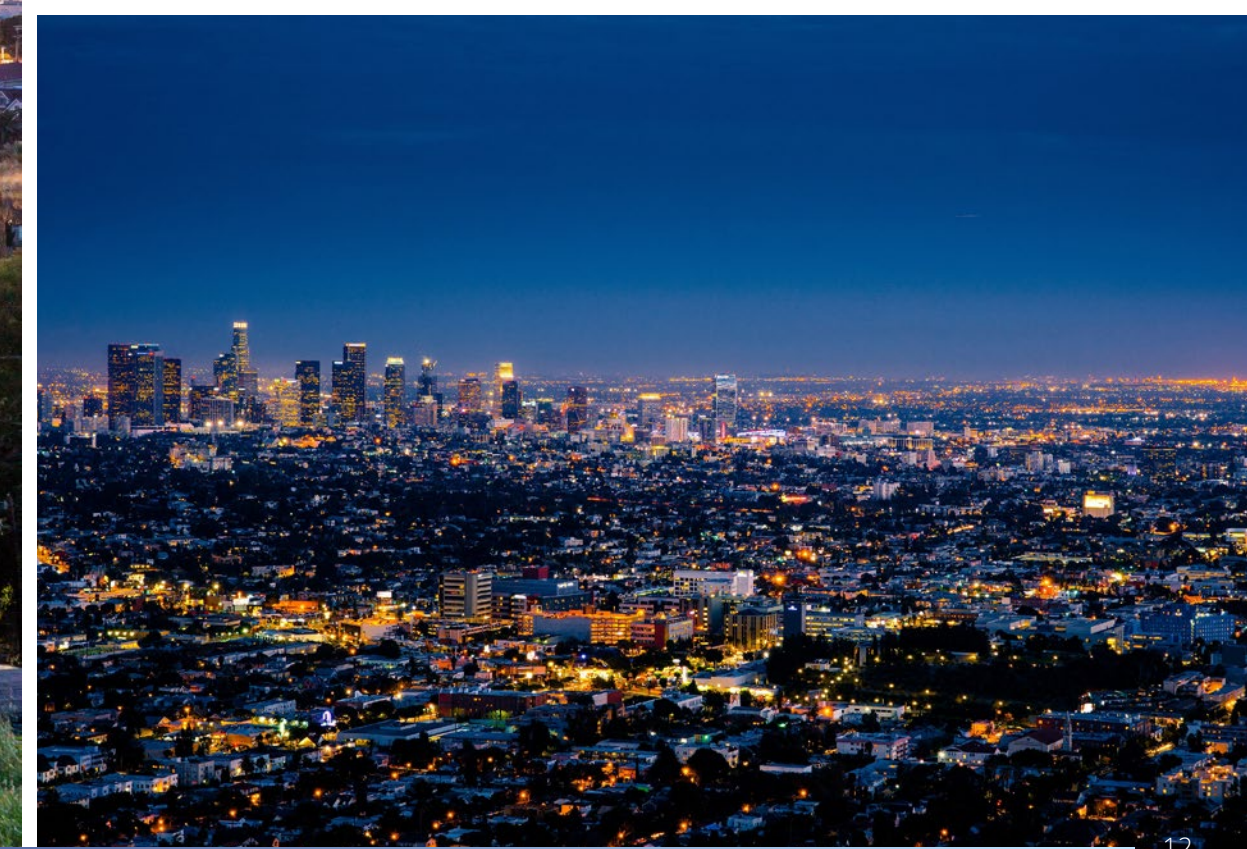

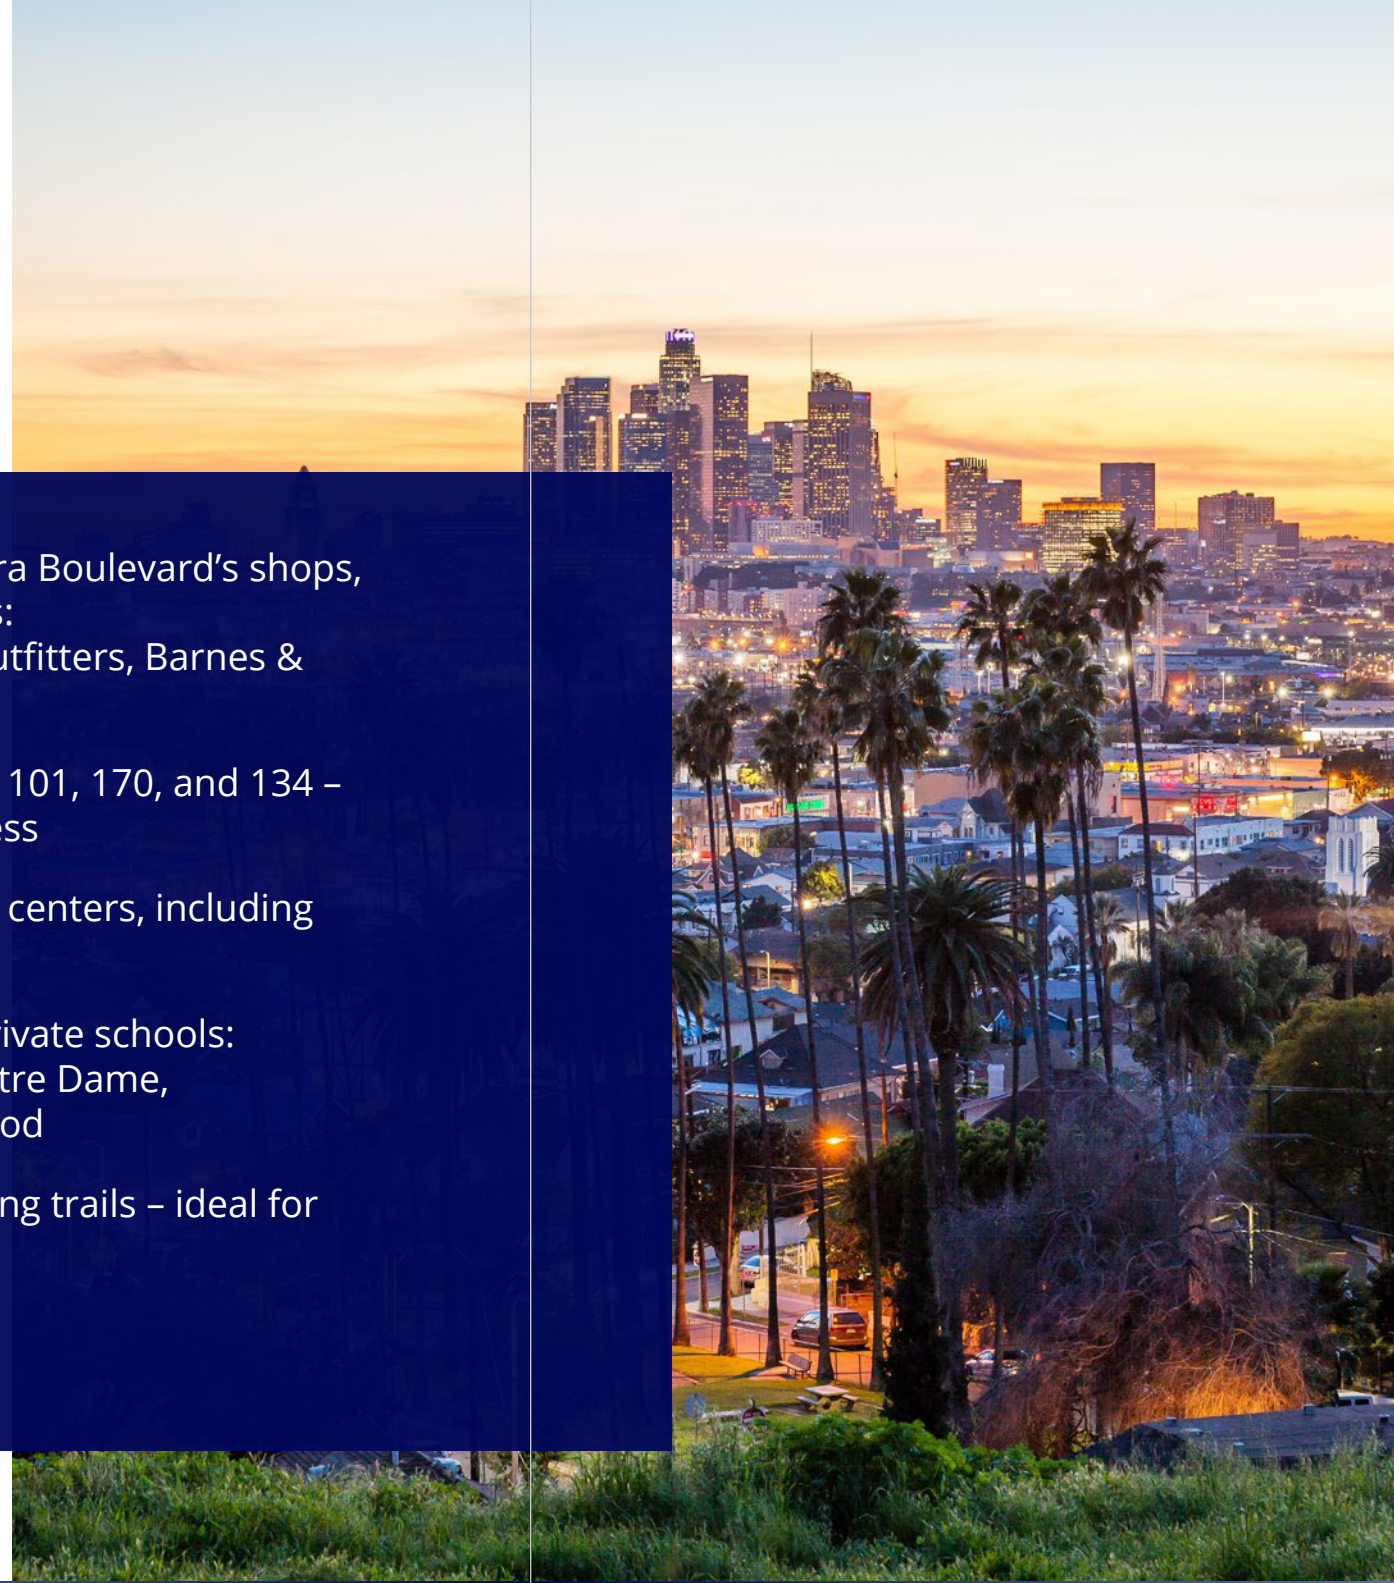

With strong fundamentals, timeless curb appeal, and prime location, 11755 Moorpark Street is an exceptional multifamily investment opportunity in one of Los Angeles' most desirable neighborhoods.

Area Overview

Studio City Essentials

Located just 12 miles northeast of downtown Los Angeles, Studio City is a lively, affluent city in Southern California. Studio City is an ideal blend of California’s natural landscape, residential neighborhoods, and bustling urban areas.

With an incredible location, Studio City is just seven miles north of Beverly Hills, six miles northeast of Hollywood, and offers a quick commute to popular attractions like Venice Beach, the Santa Monica Pier, and the Los Angeles International Airport, all under 30 miles from town. Studio City is conveniently located directly west of Universal Studios, a huge attraction to the area that brings in visitors and residents alike.

Along the Los Angeles River, you’ll discover retailers, restaurants, and local businesses galore. Explore scenic trails along the river or visit local hot spots like Granville to enjoy a modern, family-friendly eatery with great food and even better drinks.
